WE RECOMMEND TASTING DRY TO SWEET

Dry wines (< 1% residual sugar)		Bottle Price
Chardone 2011	New release! Well-balanced and elegant, this is an ideal food-pairing wine. A fabulous, sleeker alternative to classic California chardonnays. A signature grape from our vineyards.	$13.95
White Select	Slightly off-dry white wine made from Cayuga. Light-bodied, crisp & fruity on the palate. An excellent choice for fans of drier Rieslings. Sorry, no discounts.	$11.95
Red Select	Robust dry red table wine made from our own Chambourcin. An easy drinking dry red that's great with pasta or by itself!	$11.95
Chambourcin 2009	Dry, medium bodied, with nice tannin structure. Aged in French Oak. Excellent companion for a meal with spicier dishes, or just crackers & sharp cheeses. We think it's our best Chambourcin yet!	$15.95
Semi dry/semi sweet (3% residual sugar)
Vidal Blanc 2010	See for yourself why this wine, made from our most recently-planted, vines has become an instant classic! Fruity, herbal, distinctively delightful. Similar in style to Pinot Grigio.	SOLD OUT
Traminette 2010	100% Indiana Uplands Traminette lends this wine its pleasant and refreshing floral aroma. One taste & you'll see why Indiana's state grape has such a devoted following!	$13.95
Indiana White	New release! This very popular semi dry/sweet blend of Chardone & Vignoles from our vineyard is quite the crowd pleaser. Lightly floral on the nose with a delicate peach flavor.	$11.95
Chambourcin Rosé 2010	Early picked Chambourcin made from the free run juice after crush, so this red grape has less tannin & color. A lovely rosé with a fruit forward nose, well-rounded body & lingering finish. Silver medal winner at the Indy International 2011.	$13.95
Indiana Red	Indiana-grown Chambourcin. A lighter-bodied red with lots of fruit but a distinct cherry character. Having guests over but don't know what red wine to serve? This is it.	$11.95

Sweet Wines (> 4% residual sugar)
Vineyard White	Classic Catawba flavor with just a hint of tartness. This sweet white is fruity and eminently easy to drink. Great for any occasion!	$8.95
Vineyard Rosé	A blend of Catawba, Concord and Chambourcin gives this gorgeous pink wine its bright and fruity character. Enjoy with Asian cuisine or barbecue. Silver medal at the 2011 Indy International. New Bottling coming soon!	SOLD OUT
Vineyard Red	Sweet red wine with medium body and a luscious Concord character. Great wine for a patio cookout. Also pairs well with pizza! Silver medal at the 2011 Indy International.	$8.95
Fruit & Specialty Dessert Wines (variable residual sugar)
Apple	Taste our newest fruit wine! This fresh & fruity apple wine has a light body with a mildly tart finish. Serve chilled or try it at home, warmed with brown sugar & a cinnamon stick for a tasty winter treat!	$8.95
Blackberry	Fresh blackberries give this wine a scrumptious fresh berry flavor. Be sure to give this one a try - it's just like digging into a jar of Mom's homemade preserves! Bronze medal at the 2011 Indy International.	$11.95
Blueberry	Superb, rich blueberry character with a little spice. Wonderful companion with fresh fruits, cheeses, and desserts. 100% Indiana-grown blueberries, almost 2 lbs in every bottle!	$11.95
Late Harvest Vignoles 2010	Peach, apricot and other stone fruits on the nose. Naturally sweet, full-bodied, utterly delicious. A perfect dessert wine, and a classic Vignoles. One taste and you'll see why it's a perennial favorite.	$17.95 375 mL
Black Currant $1.00 to taste	The only Indiana grown currant wine on the market. This rich savory wine has an aroma that climbs right out of the glass! Full-bodied with a mouth watering sweet tart finish. Quite the conversation wine. Production is very limited, sorry no discounts :($15.95
Cassis Noir $2.00 to taste	Be sure to try this cult favorite! We've taken flavorful, robust currant wine and added grape brandy. Similar in style to a port. Taste with dark chocolate for a real treat! Very limited production- sorry no discounts.	$21.95
